Main details of the Course

The Moscow canal is 2340 m long. It has two waterways: the basic – 125 m wide with 9 lanes of Albano system, and return – 75 m wide. The depth of both of them is 3 m.

The basic and the return waterways are divided by the island.

There are two connecting canals between the basic and warm up waterways for the going up to start - on the marks 600 m and 1100 m. Starts are equipped with the automatic start system.

There are an electric time keeping system with photo finish camera and video recording. For TV-cars and coaches following the races on bicycles there are asphalt roads along the distance and around the island.

Participation

You must apply for an accreditation card if you would like to enter the event as the official participant such as competitor, coach, team leader, etc.

You can apply accreditation for nation and club events separately. Each accreditation corresponds to a pass that allows participation in the races. The one who is in possession of a "club pass" only, is not able to participate in the nation races and vice versa. To be able to participate in both types of races (clubs and nations) you must have both types of passes.

Accreditation fee per person per one type of races (nations or clubs):

50 € - for senior athletes

30 € - for junior athletes

20 € - for all other members of a team (per person): coaches, staff members, functionaries, who benefit of all the services, without use of the boat

The Accreditation Fee will not be charged to the ECA Officers (including ECA Jury, Technical Officials, ECA Sponsors and Suppliers, Board of Directors, ECA Headquarters Staff), NF Presidents and Secretary Generals, not part of the NF team management.

Accreditation fee includes:

- access and common use of the venue and its facilities,
- security services at the course,
- medical /First Aid services at the course,
- access pass

- miscellaneous services (including but not limited to water - 1 litre per person per day, internet, etc.)

Accreditation fee still applies no matter which hotel team is staying at.

Possibility of a training camp:

Teams wishing to have a training camp on the competition venue prior the Championships are kindly requested to order the camp through the Organization Committee in advance.

Ways and terms of payment

- Payment could be made by means of:
