WELCOME TO SILKEBORG, DENMARK

The Danish organization of the 2022 ECA Canoe Marathon EUROPEAN Championships has the pleasure to present you the first bulletin.

Known for the astonishing beauty of its surrounding lakes and forests, Silkeborg – the ‘Outdoor Capital of Denmark’ takes the breath away of nature lovers from around the globe. Located on Denmark’s longest river, it hosts the largest canoe event in the region – the Tour de Gudenå.

Sikeborg offers exceptional conditions and incredible waters for canoeists. Athletes and fans coming to the 2022 Canoe Marathon European Championships will undoubtedly be able to celebrate the true canoe experience among natural elements.

Sport Event Denmark, Danish Canoe Federation, and Silkeborg Municipality are joining their forces to contribute in making the 2022 Canoe Marathon European Championships a great celebration and a big success. Each with their own specific capabilities and experience, these dedicated partners are determined to use their extensive knowledge of hosting and sport events to ensure that there will be a smooth organization and big celebration of canoeing in 2022. All will be welcomed in a city embalmed in the championship’s atmosphere – imagine a whole city dedicated to welcoming athletes, visitors and fans!

Welcome to Silkeborg, Denmark

Helle Gade, Mayor of Silkeborg

Lars Lundov, CEO Sport Event Denmark

Tom Faurschou, President Danish Canoe Federation

COURSE

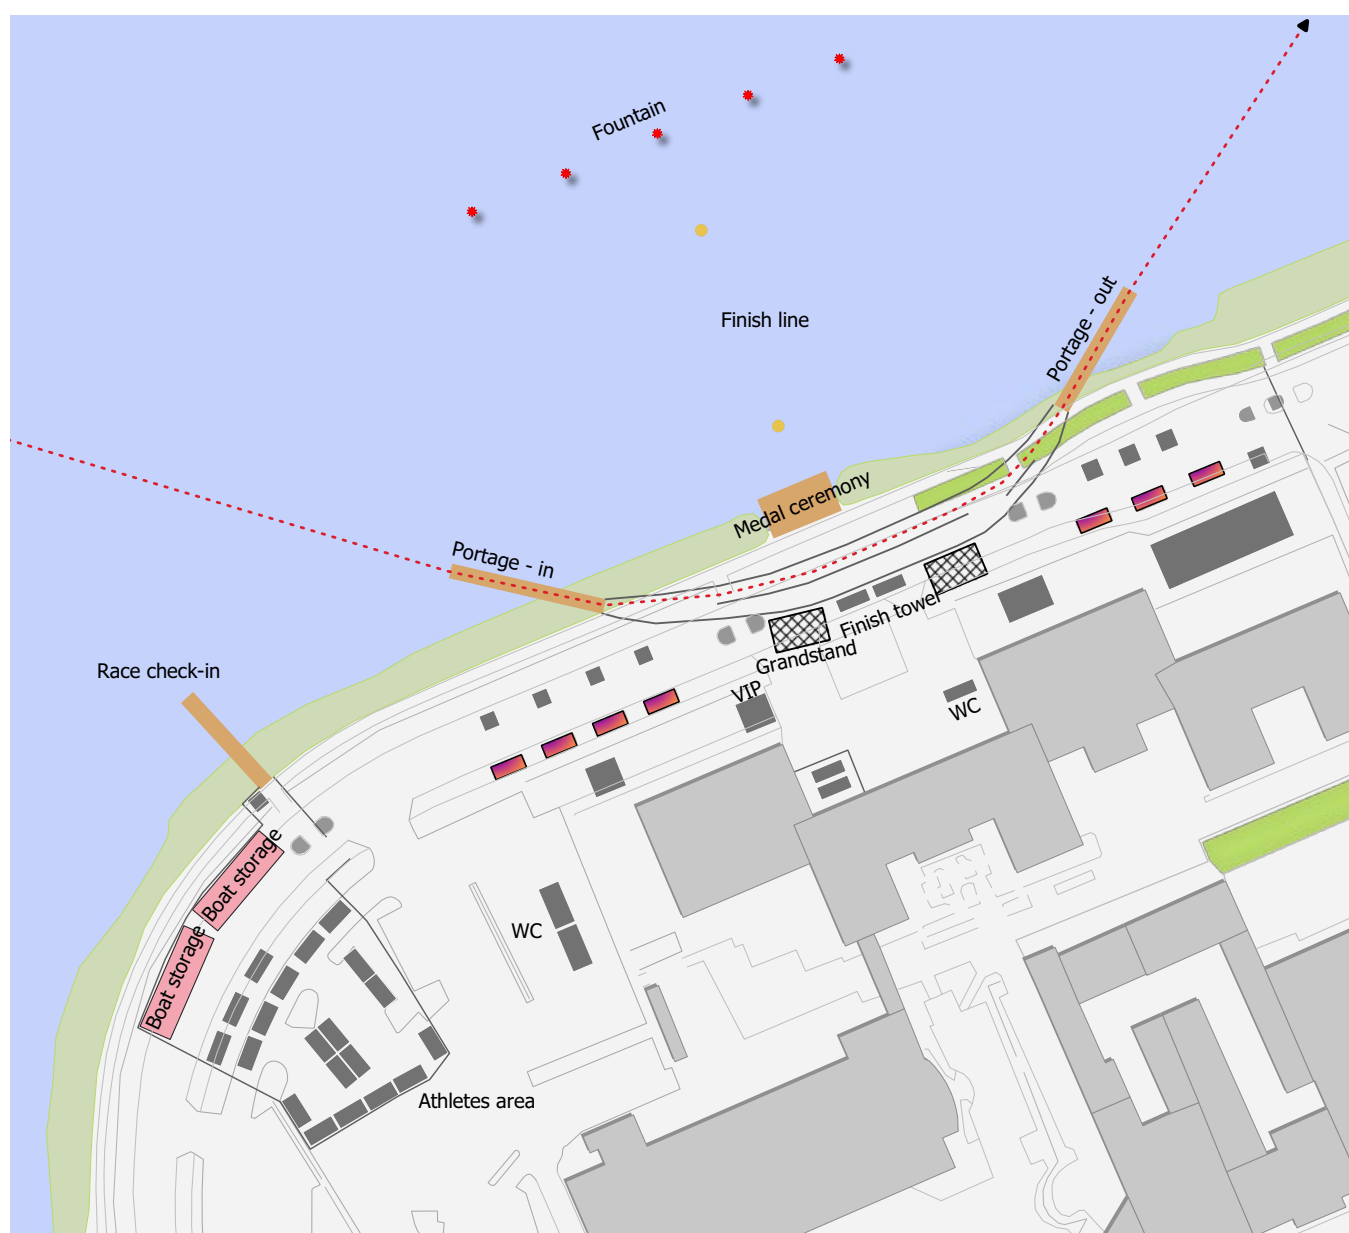

The start and finish line and the portage will be in the same area. All around the course the depth of the water will be at least 4 metres.

There will be one portage for each lap – both on the short track distance and marathon distance. The length of the portage is approx. 100 meters. The beginning and ending of the portage will be via a pontoon.

Course of the race will be published in bulletin 2.
